Planning Board determination of ANR Endorsement:

In determining whether a plan is entitled to be endorsed “Approval Under Subdivision Control Law Not Required,” the Planning Board should ask the following questions and the applicant should provide sufficient information for the board’s determination of the following:

1. Do the proposed lots shown on the plan have frontage on one of the following types of ways?	<input type="checkbox"/>
a. A public way? or	<input type="checkbox"/>
b. A way which the Town Clerk certifies (in writing) is maintained and used as a public way? Or	<input type="checkbox"/>
c. A way shown on a plan which has been previously approved in accordance with the Subdivision Control Law (i.e., a way approved by a Definitive Subdivision)? Or	<input type="checkbox"/>
d. A way in existence when the Subdivision Control Law took effect in the Town of Blandford (October 16, 2007), which in the opinion of the Planning Board is suitable for the proposed use of the lots.	<input type="checkbox"/>
2. Do each of the proposed lots shown on the plan meet the minimum frontage requirements?	<input type="checkbox"/>
3. Can each lot access onto the way from the frontage shown on the plan	<input type="checkbox"/>
4. Does the way on which the proposed lots front provide adequate access?	<input type="checkbox"/>
5. Does each lot have practical access from the way to a buildable portion of lot?	<input type="checkbox"/>

Note:

A plan may show one or more parcels that are not building lots that do not conform to one or more of the above tests provided each such parcel is clearly labeled that it is “Not a Separate Building Lot” or similar notation.
